SENIOR HISTORY

It all started on a very bright and shiny September morning. It was a beautiful day for everyone except us. We were faced with a problem--a big one. We were entering KCHS with a feeling of nervous anticipation. It turned out to be a pretty good year after all. The school activities were an exciting experience for everyone. We started our sophomore year with a different approach. We were much more daring. Our sophomore Sock Hop was the big project of that year. It was a lot of fun planning for and turned out to be a big success.

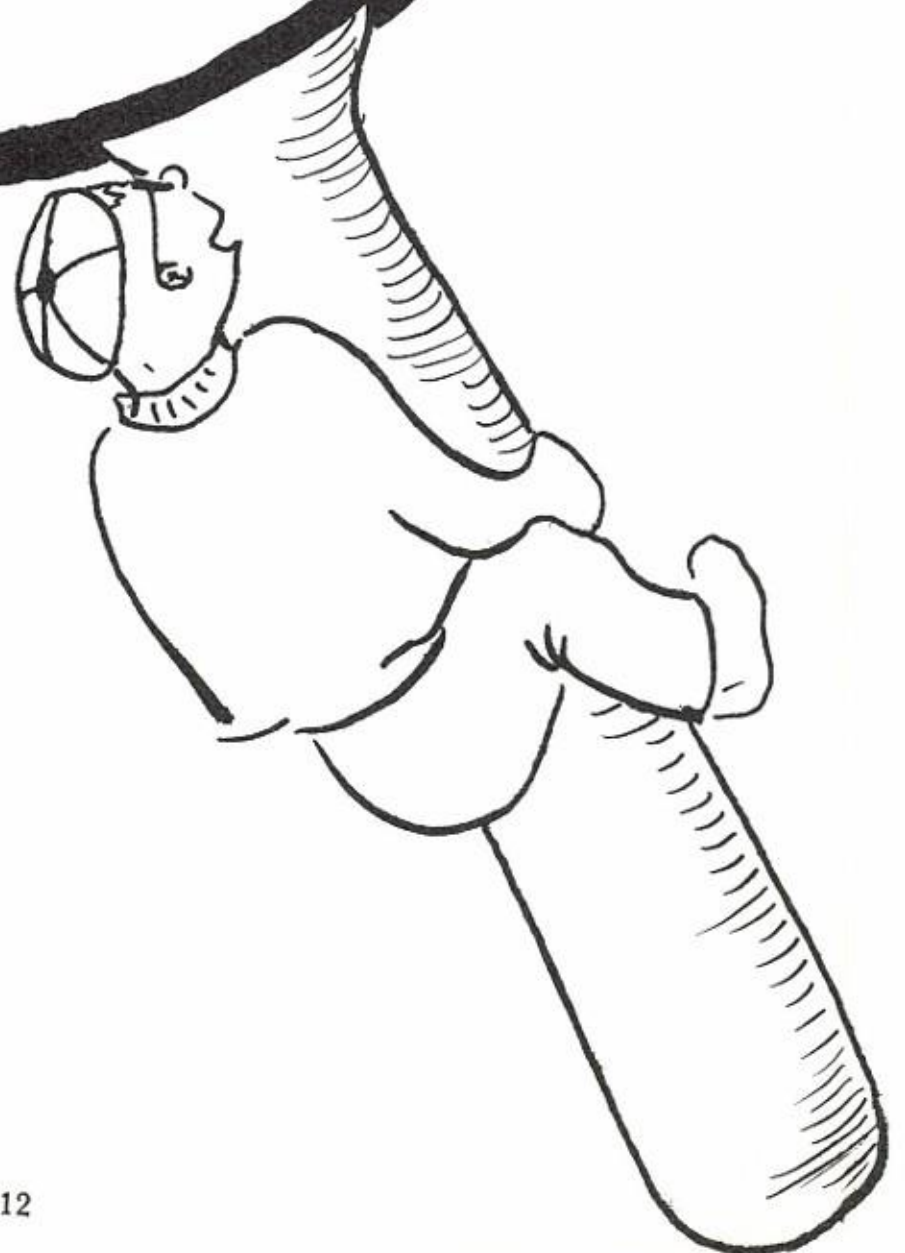

As juniors we played host to "Her Majesty Miss Jones." Every member of the class turned out to make this play the hit it was. This was also the year we found ourselves surrounded by an "Enchanted Island" which was the theme of our Junior Prom.

Then it finally came. The day we, as underclassmen, had looked forward to. We walked across the campus as "big" seniors.

The class began the year by presenting the play, "Our Hearts Were Young And Gay." With a new director and a different style, our second hit was produced.

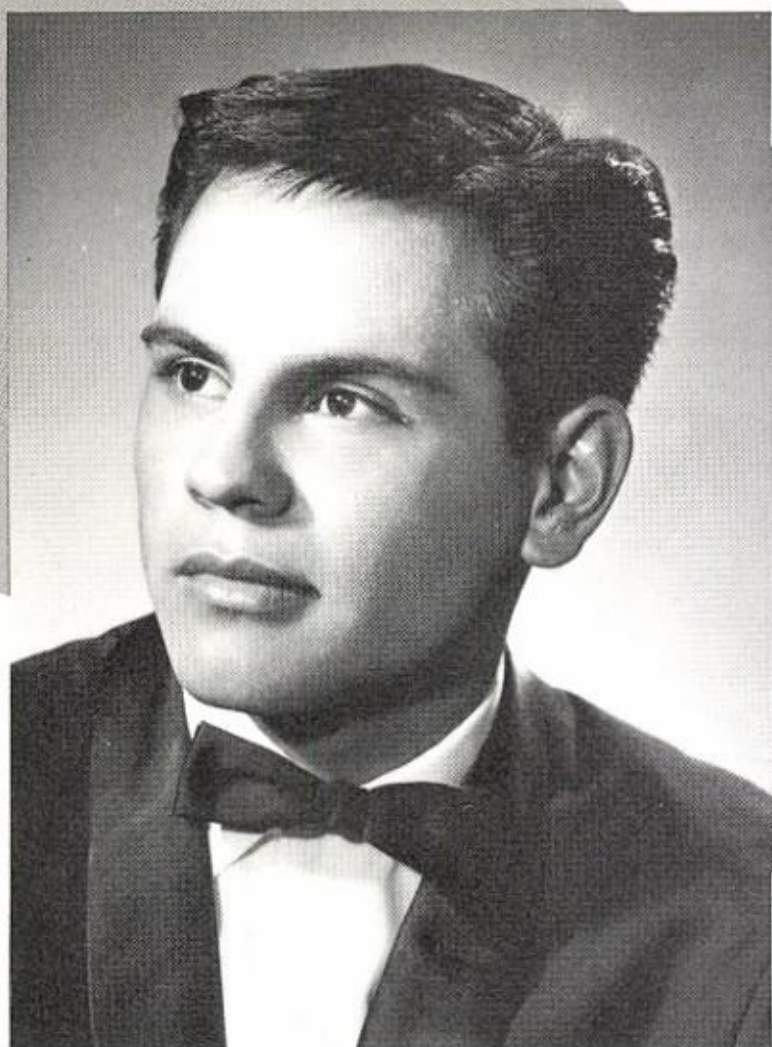

This could be called the "Wonderful Year," as it brought forth the first championship football team. This built school spirit for everyone, and we, as seniors, were proud to be a part of it.

With the hustle of graduation and the activities that it brings, we, as the class of 1962, pause to remember the past and look forward to planning for the future.

When the books close, and the last bell rings,
And carefree days are lost to mundane things--
When nostalgia strikes, and
your memory wanes,
And you remember the faces
but not the names--
Pickup your yearbook and leaf
it through,
And remember the days so
dear to you.

TO YOU,

JERRY

The class of '62

Will always stick together,
In good times and bad times
And all kinds of weather.

Through trouble and heartache
We go along the way,
And look forward to the happenings
Of each and every day.

The class is proud of every member
That passes through the door,
And when it comes to courage,
We couldn't ask for more.

It's a long, long road we have to follow
Before we reach our goal,
And sometimes along the way
We fall into a hole.

To you, Jerry, we are especially proud
For holding your head up high,
And always remember
Your class is behind you as the time passes by.
